

Take Me Back; Words and Music by Jim Hughes. I got saved on Sunday July 27, 1975 and this was my first Christian song a couple of days later; it's a parody of the first song I ever wrote a year earlier. Recorded Saturday March 2, 2013. Copyright © 1995 Jim Hughes/2013 Tree Number 3 Publishing.

G Em C D

I have traveled to the lands beyond
And I have seen the many lights of dawn
The only hope I could embrace
Sight—of my Savior's face

Take me back, please take me back
Let my thoughts be only of Thee
Our love will grow in the darkest night
Our happiness brings the morning light

You're the Savior that I long to see
The only Savior that belongs to me
Jesus Christ won't You come save me
Heal my soul, set me free!

Never Used Verse:

You're the An-cient—of Days, I pray I walk in all Your ways
Since Your love has changed my life
You've rescued me and made all things right
