

God Bless You; Recorded Saturday March 2, 2013; 1975 Parody by Jim Hughes of Eagles song, Take It Easy. Take It Easy was the second song I learned how to play – I actually heard Jackson Browne's version first of the song (It was written by Browne and Glenn Frey of the Eagles in 1972); The Beatles 1969, Here Comes the Sun by George Harrison was the first song I learned. G Well, I was runnin' down the road tryin' to take up my cross, I've got my Lord and Savior D on my C mind, G Born again, filled D with the Spirit, speak in C tongues all the G time God Em bless you, God C bless G you, may Am Jesus Christ be C with you all your Em life, Get C down while you still G can, don't even C try to under G stand, if the Am Lord is tuggin' on your C heart & God G bless You

Well I'm standin' on a corner in Maryvale, Arizoner it's such a fine D sight to C see, it's a G convert my Lord in D one accord, slowin' C down to hear the Word G preached Come on C baby, G don't say C maybe, G don't let the Am sound of your own C doubts drive you Em crazy Lighten C up while you still G can, just take the C Lord and make your G stand, Come on and Am open up the C Door and God will G bless you!
